Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Charleston Awards Contract

CHARLESTON, S.C. — Honeywell Technology Solutions, Inc., Columbia, Md., is being awarded a $9,251,914 Indefinite Delivery, Indefinite Quantity, Cost-Plus-Fixed-Fee type contract for program management, high performance computing, information security, modeling & simulation, systems engineering, integration, technical support and integrated logistics support for designated Navy Cryptographic requirements. This contract includes four one-year options, which if exercised, would bring the cumulative value of the contract to $48,337,923. Work will be performed in Charleston, S.C. (80%) and Norfolk, Va. (20%) and is expected to be completed by September 2003. If all options are exercised, the period of performance will continue through September 2007. Contract funds in the amount of $100,000 will not expire at the end of the fiscal year. The contract was competitively procured under full and open competition. The Request for Proposal was posted on the SPAWAR Systems Center E-Commerce website and seven offers were received. The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center, Charleston is the contracting activity (N65236-02-D-7839).
